Principal's Report

Mr. Ball reported on the following items:

- District Goals 2008-09
- School Goals 2008-09
- Facility/Bond Meetings
- Update on Portfolio Preview Night
- Homecoming Parade
- PSAT Testing @ LBCC
- P-T-C on Oct. 15-16 evenings

District Goals 2008-09

- The biggest decision that has to be made is what buildings will be reconstructed and what new buildings will be constructed.

School Goals 2008-09

- 20-20 Vision group is working on
- PBS – Focus on Positive Behaviors
- Facility Bond – We need community support

Portfolio Preview Night

- 50% attendance
- The office did a follow-up for parents that were not able to attend.
- For next year, some sort of incentive, TV, iPod... as a raffle.
- Next year more time should be given for student to return their sign-up sheets.

Homecoming Parade

- ASB
- City Police problem, there would be a need for 11-14 officers to handle the original parade.
- Route – Applegate to 16th/Elementary School/Applegate to 19th/South Clemens to Middle School and back to the parking lot.
- 5 cars for the Princesses
- Juniors and Seniors get Spirit Cars
- Dance Team, Band, Football, Soccer, Volleyball, Track

PSAT on October

- Students will be bussed to LBCC

Parent-Teacher Conferences

- We are sending out invitations to all parents. Students with C, D or F are required to attend.
- Calls from the office to help teachers contact parents.
- Follow up from the office when parents do not attend.
- Students are encouraged to attend with their parents.
- October 15 – 4-8pm
- October 16 – 4-7:30
- If parents and student do not attend, the potential consequences will be in-school suspension. A sub will be hired for the day.
- Parents can make other arrangements to meet with teachers if the 15th or 16th do not work.
