

Finding Psychology Magazine/Journal Articles

This is one of many ways to get to magazine articles on psychology topics. If you do not find an article you want to read following these steps, try changing some of the selections made within each step – i.e. use a different database, try a different search term...

- Go to Library web page - <http://www.philomath.k12.or.us/phs/library.html>
- Click on Ebsco Magazine and Journal – left column, halfway down
(If you are doing this from home the User ID is philomat, the Password is oslis)
- Select  All EBSCO Databases
- Go to MAS Ultra - School Edition, click on  Title List
- Browse Publications by By Subject & Description (the middle choice below search box)
- In Search box type in Psychology (gets you to magazines about psychology), click Browse
- The resulting list should all be magazines that have psychology as a main focus. From this list you must select the magazines to search by clicking on the boxes. You can click on every box if you want to. ***
- After selecting which magazines you want searched, type a search term into the box next to Find: near the top of the page and click
- Click on the title of the article or the Full Text link to view the article. Print or Add to Folder (folder icon to the right of the citation).

At this point you can also look through issues of these magazines individually. If you:

- Click on a title you'll get a list of years,
- Click on a year and you'll get a list of issues,
- Click on the issue and you'll get a list of the articles in the issue
- Click on the Full Text and you'll get the article
